The following telegram was received in Shanghai on the 11th May from Nagasaki:

Y. K. Tachibana, Nagasaki, M. A., has arrived at Nagasaki.

The Chinese Engineering and Mining Co. is in the Old Dock at Shanghai, having new rivets put in the rudder; and the stern tube is being repaired.

The Shun-pao says that upwards of a hundred soldiers have been stationed road about the Roman Catholic church and garrison at Yangkow.

The people are quiet and no further trouble is apprehended.

It is notified by the Acting Harbor Master that ships conveying Chinese passengers, or of the port of Ordinance No. 1 of 1859, will not be allowed to carry them on the upper or lower deck between the 1st June and 1st

October inclusive.

A notification in Saturday's Gazette announces that Her Majesty has not been advised to pay her respects to the Chinese Government.
